Philadelphia Presbyterian Church
Mint Hill, North Carolina
December 2016 - January 2017

From Rev. Rusty Benton, Head Pastor

Happy New Year!

Ok, so I know it's early yet, but so many folks have written about Christmas and done it so well, that I am not sure that anything that I could add would be, value added. So, I'll take this opportunity to just join in the celebration of the birth of the savior of the world with exuberance and joy proclaiming the great news for all people that God is the true author and light of this hope filled season! And of course.... Merry Christmas!

Following the great news of Christmas, is more great news. That news is the continuing great celebration that doesn't stop when the Christmas season ends. Instead of ending, in fact, it's actually just getting started! Jesus' birth is the beginning of our new life. The celebration of a New Year is a wonderful reminder of that, in Jesus Christ, we have the opportunity to begin every new day, as well as every New Year with optimism and hope in our Lord. This is the gift for every season of our lives because as Christians, we believe that God's eternal presence is a helpful, positive, hope filled reality that gives us cause to celebrate each day.

In 2017, we at PPC will surely see lots of change. For instance, we have plans to begin an alternative worship service that will help us further reach out to our church and community in the name of Christ. In addition, there are plans for new events and ministries across our faith community. In 2017, our ministry teams have dedicated themselves to be open and prayerful about both exploring new opportunities for ministry as well as serving in established ministries with anticipation of the newness that God's presence and power can bring into life.

The New Year? It reminds us that it is a new day, and that is something to celebrate. However, in God, this newness is something that we are blessed to be able to celebrate every day. It is the newness of God that brings new life to us as individuals, a church and a world. It is the blessing of knowing that our unchanging God's plan is a plan of hope and love and a way of life that brings us all together around the goodness of life that never changes.

Reverse Advent Calendar

'tis the Season for Giving

Can you believe that Christmas is right around the corner and Advent has just begun? It's hard to imagine! Advent is the perfect time for focusing on the joy of the season, but it can also seem really commercial. The season of Advent is a time when we both look back to the first coming of Jesus Christ, and also look forward to His future second coming. We remember both what He has already accomplished, and look forward with hope and expectancy for what He will accomplish.

The tradition of the Advent Calendar was intended as a countdown to Christmas. When I was young I remember opening the little doors of my calendar and reading a special Advent focused scripture each morning with my dad. Now it seems that Advent calendars are less about Advent and more about receiving a piece of chocolate or small gift each day. This year I want to challenge everyone to join in on the Reverse Advent Calendar movement and be on the giving end this season – for it is better to give than to receive.

Pick a box or even basket and every day in December put one item in your box. On December 24 donate the entire box to the charity of your choice. A reverse advent calendar is perfect to do as a group, too. You can put the box in your classroom, workplace or do it as a larger family group and take turns at adding to it.

Two great charities to consider this season are Backpacks of Love and Bright Blessings. Below you will find a list of suggested items each charity needs to get you started. These are just a few suggestions!

Bright Blessings: fleece blankets, bibs, bottles, diaper bags, receiving blankets, hooded towels

Backpacks of Love: poptarts, canned tuna/chicken, hearty canned soup, beanie weenies, packaged oatmeal, packaged grits, canned vegetables

The church staff is taking part in a reverse Advent Calendar! Come on and join the fun!

Joy! Love! Peace!

Katie

Christmas morning “Come As You Are” worship service

What’s all this talk about pajama’s at church on Christmas morning?

The atmosphere at Philadelphia Presbyterian Church’s Christmas morning worship will be joyful and relaxed, with the full tone of Christmas. We welcome you to “come as you are” on Christmas morning. Whether you wear casual clothes, your Sunday go-to church finest, or YOUR PAJAMAS! Yup, I said pajamas! Nothing crazy of course, just some warm comfy PJs!

December 25 is a day that is reserved and protected as a day for family. Christmas morning starts early with the kids racing to see what is under the tree and the kitchen is overflowing with deliciousness. Each moment of the day is packed full of things to do. This year December 25 happens to fall on a Sunday. That being the case, we are all adding worship to our Christmas Day schedules. The last thing you should have to worry about is rushing around trying to get all dressed up just to come to church. If you have a beautiful Christmas outfit, by all means, please wear it. But, if you have been up since 5:00 a.m. preparing food or unwrapping gifts with the kids, feel free to come in some comfy clothes and enjoy worship.

There will not be any Sunday School on Christmas morning. Worship will begin at 10:30 a.m. You will want to arrive a little early. We are having cocoa and coffee!!! Bring your favorite coffee cup, we’ll have a refill for you!

Backpacks of Love

At this time of year, it is especially important to remember the children at Clear Creek Elementary. In the next several weeks we’d like to build up our supplies at the school to be sure we can fill backpacks to capacity for the long Christmas break. We tend to run low on oatmeal/grits packets, PopTarts, small containers of meats/poultry/seafood/macaroni and cheese for lunches, and larger cans of the same for dinners as well as hearty meat-based soups. We like to include 16 oz. jars of peanut butter, individual packs of crackers, and cranberry sauce for the long break. Thank you for caring for these children.

From your Endowment Council

This is a season that is full of wonder and reflection. It is a time that we may reflect on and become particularly grateful for the blessings God has bestowed on us. This gratitude may lead to making a charitable contribution to our church or to a favorite charity. The endowment council asks you to consider making that end of the year contribution to the Endowment Fund of Philadelphia Church.

Each person’s financial situation is different. When you itemize your tax deductions, please consider these options to eliminate federal income tax on up to half of your adjusted gross income. You may also be eligible for state income tax savings.

Using appreciated securities such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, for your charitable giving can provide you with additional tax savings since you do not realize long term capital gains and the current value, rather than your cost, may be reported as a contribution.

Donations from IRA funds are now allowed under a tax bill signed December 2015.

The Endowment program is a tremendous source of income at PPC. The funds are often established by someone wishing to create a memorial or a legacy gift that will provide a source of support to our church in perpetuity. Funds are created to support a favorite mission or program that already exists in our church. Perhaps there is a program that yet needs to be started and funded. We invite you to explore the opportunity to impact Philadelphia's future by considering a tax deductible charitable contribution this year to one of the more than 20 endowed funds or by creating a new fund in support of a mission or ministry that is dear to your heart.

To be sure that you receive your 2016 tax deduction, make your gift by December 31. Contact a member of the Endowment Council or our minister, Rusty Benton.

Endowment Chairman

Ten years ago our church was involved in The Kingdom Project. Thirty unsuspecting volunteers were given a one hundred dollar bill and asked to creatively find a way to increase that money and report back in three months. Later the stories of how the money was used and grown were incredible. In fact just this month Doug and Kaye Vass entertained their Tenth International Tasting Party to help fund the Heifer Project. That initial $100 from ten years ago has now topped over $15,000. The wonderful fact is that those who attend are asked to bring an international hors d’oeuvre and to donate $30. Duke Energy generously adds fifty percent of each donation to the total gift.

So how is this fund raiser connected to endowments? It’s an idea that has continued to give. Our church has a number of endowment funds, but the cornerstone of any church is our involvement in our community, country and world. A mission endowment fund could help our youth reach out to others each year. A mission endowment fund could send a group to Lumberton and surrounding communities to help with flood victims. If you are looking for a way to serve your church and community why not think about giving an endowment to fund missions.

The year is drawing to a close. Have you turned in your volunteer hours?
Turn in all your volunteer hours, not just the ones you do at church!
They all count!

Kids' Corner

The Kingdom Kids collected over 100 pairs of shoes to donate to Soles 4 Souls where new and used shoes are sent to impoverished areas in the US and other countries. Many cannot afford footwear, a luxury we take for granted each day. The Kingdom Kids are sharing the love of Jesus in the form of a shoe which will hopefully put smiles on faces around the world!

Let's Connect

Our mid week program has ended for the fall semester and will begin again on January 11. Thank you to all who participated in this program. If you were unable to attend this fall, please come for the second semester! There are Believe activities, missions and choir for kids and youth. The adults have time with Rusty and Katie where interactive learning, individual and group participation, laughter and tears, questions and answers, grows ones spiritual life in a casual, small group setting. Please join in on the fun and fellowship!

PPC Mission Statement

Growing the Kingdom of God by Spreading the Good News, Serving the least among us, Working for justice, and Teaching future generations

The Bulletin Board

If you are a widower, come have breakfast at Showmars at 8:00 the third Friday of each month. It would be helpful to let Tony Baker know (704-545-4730) that you will be there, but it's not necessary. Just come around to the back room at Showmars in Mint Hill.

The Morning Glories meet the last Monday of the month at Showmars in Mint Hill at 9:15 a.m. If you are a widow lady, please join this group for breakfast..

All announcements or inserts to be included in the weekly bulletin MUST be received in the office by noon on Thursday of each week. Announcements or inserts received after noon will be included in the following week's bulletin. Please be aware that any submissions may need to be edited for space!

Angel tree gifts are due in the entryway on December 11!

As has been our tradition for many years, poinsettias provided in honor or memory of friends and loved ones

 POINSETTIA ORDERS will grace the chancel during the Advent season. The cost for the 6" pots of poinsettias will be $7.50 (same as last year). The plants will be 14-18" tall. Orders should be turned in to the church office by December 5.

The poinsettias may be removed from the sanctuary after the Christmas Eve services.

Presbyterian Women's Bazaar Update

The Presbyterian Women give thanks to the Lord for the 2016 bazaar! Over 100 people, men, women, boys and girls, several who are not PPC members, participated in making this event a huge success raising over $33,000! It takes a village and every single contribution is needed and appreciated! Thank you one and all for your participation!

Also at the bazaar, Ellen Street was awarded with the PW highest honor, Honorary Lifetime member. Congratulations to Ellen for her wonderful and appreciated contributions to the PW and our church.

Ladies, please mark your calendars for February 12 for the annual Valentine Tea. Be watching for details!

New directories are in the works!

We are planning to print updated church directories in December. If you would like a new picture in the directory, you may submit one electronically to Cynthia by December 5, 2016. The picture must be with a plain background and must be a head shot. An example would be like a passport picture. Your second choice is to drop by the rotunda after the 10:30 service on Sunday December 4, 2016. We will be taking pictures then. Also, if you have a new address, email, and/or new phone numbers, be sure to get this information to Cynthia by December 5, 2016.
